

Pledge to Prohibit Unauthorized Reproduction and Distribution of Educational Materials

The educational videos and materials provided by the Marine Environment Research & Training Institute for the "Education for Managers of Prevention of Marine Pollution from Ships (Regular Course – online theory education for foreign seamen)" are intended solely for academic purposes by enrolled trainees. Unauthorized reproduction, transmission (including file uploads), distribution, and copying for purposes other than academic use are acts of copyright infringement.

I pledge to use these materials strictly for academic purposes within the scope of this course, and I acknowledge that any violation may be subject to penalties under Article 136 of the Copyright Act.
